Date MARCH 21st. 1929.

Subject (in full) COMMUNIST LITERATURE.

Made by C.D.I. J.W. Prince Forwarded by H. Evans Hd. Pol.

Reference to the attached inquiries, so far, have failed to discover the place of origin, or the author of this publication, which is deemed to be of a distinctly communistic nature. Please see translations of passages marked on pages 17 & 23, attached! Mr. Chao Wan Tung (周雲東) local Chief Inspector in the Chinese Postal Service informs me that they have seized numerous copies of this publication which had been posted in the names of the International Dispensary, Messrs Evans & Sons, Commercial Press, the Pah Ling Dispensary and other firms, and that all endeavours, by the Postal Authorities, to detect the sender have so far been in vain.

We have made inquiries of News Agencies, Book-Stores, and printers, regarding the book and wrapper but without success.

Filed on instructions of A.C.P. Pol. 21/3
